SUBJECT: ROBERT GRAHAM NEY

Dear Brian:

I still would like an Ineligible Volunteer Record Sheet, so that we could identify Mr. Ney. Please complete this with as much information as you have available. I have enclosed another form for your use.

We would also like to have the outcome of the legal action, once it has been completed. This would help us in making certain our file is strong enough to refuse registration anywhere in the country.

Thanks for your help.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

SUBJECT: ROBERT GRAHAM NEY

Dear Brian:

Thanks for the newspaper clipping concerning the above named individual. This is most helpful as we start a file which will lead to refusal of registration should he try to reassociate himself with the organization.

I would like to have a few things from you in order to complete our file. One is the Ineligible Volunteer Record Sheet, so we can identify Mr. Ney. A copy of the form is enclosed for your use. Please complete it with as much information as you have available.

The other item I would like is the outcome of the legal action. Once this has been completed, we would like this which would give us a strong file for the future.

Thanks for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

Photos of nude girl, 10, lead to S.J. man's arrest

By [illegible] Staff Writer

A 63-year-old San Jose man picked up his processed film at a photo store, where police officers were waiting for Robert Graham Ney because photo clerks, curious about the man who kept asking when his film would be ready, looked at the finished pictures to see why he wanted them so much.

The clerks called police after seeing the photos of a nude little girl, detectives said.

Ney, who police say had given the store a false name and phone number when he dropped off the film, originally was arrested last Saturday on suspicion of misdemeanor possession of child pornography because the victim was unknown, police said. He was soon out on bail, police added.

He was rearrested Friday on a $50,000 felony warrant issued by the district attorney's office after police found and interviewed the girl in the pictures, a 10-year-old relative who doesn't live with Ney.

The child, according to detectives, said she had been molested numerous times by Ney since 1988 at her home as well as at Ney's.

Detectives learned the child also had been photographed in similar poses last year. Other girls in the family denied they had been molested, officers said.

The warrant charges Ney with child molesting and exploitation, lewd and lascivious acts against children, and persuading a minor to pose for obscene photos.
